CONTENTS

Treatment of hydrocephalus: an historical and critical review of methods and results JOHN E. SCARFF...............................page 1

Studies on induced exacerbation of Parkinsonian rigidity The effect of contralateral voluntary activity KEIZO MATSUMOTO, FERDINAND ROSSMANN, TUNG HUI LIN, and IRVING S. COOPER........................................page 11

Deformities of hands and feet in Parkinsonism and their reversibility by operation PETER GORTVAI........................................page 33

Déjà vu in temporal lobe epilepsy MALVIN COLE and O. L. ZANGWILL...........page 37

Sporadic and familial varieties of tonic seizures JAMES W. LANCE.....................page 51

Skeletal muscle glycogenesis: an investigation of two dissimilar cases WILLIAM H. S. THOMSON, JOHN C. MACLAURIN, and JOHN W. PRINEAS..........................page 60

The failure of intravenous urea to alter the blood flow through the cerebral cortex A. MURRAY HARPER and RUTH A. BELL..............page 69

Studies on sodium transfer and 5-hydroxyindoles in depressive illness K. FOTHERBY, G. W. ASHCROFT, J. W. AFFLECK, and A. D. FORREST...............................................page 71

Vasodilatation in the human parotid gland after post-ganglionic sympathetic denervation J. A. SIMPSON and A. I. S. MACPHERSON..............page 74

A case of complete bilateral ophthalmoplegia due to an intrasellar aneurysm D. O. HANCOCK................................................page 81

Invasion of the leptomeninges by tumour: the differential diagnosis from tuberculous meningitis I. E. HUGHES, J. HUME ADAMS, and R. C. ILBERT.........................page 83

Tumour of the glomus jugulare (non-chromaffin paraganglioma) of ponto-cerebellar angle treated with x-irradiation J. GRUSZKIEWICZ, M. GELDNER, and A. Brysz........page 90

Society of British Neurological Surgeons........................................page 94

No. 3 JUNE 1963

Diagnosis of Krabbe's infantile leucodystrophy BENGT HAGBERG, PATRICK SOURANDER, and LARS SVENNERHOLM .......................................................... 195
Organic mercurial encephalopathy W. J. HAY, A. G. RICKARDS, W. H. MCMEMEY, and J. N. CUMINGS .... 199
Encephalopathy in a case of Whipple's disease J. BADENOCH, W. C. D. RICHARDS, and D. R. OPPENHEIMER . 203
Cerebral evoked potentials in patients with dissociated sensory loss A. M. HALLIDAY and G. S. WAKEFIELD ...... 211
The transfer of 35S-methionine sulphate across the blood-cerebrospinal fluid barrier D. KEMALI, M. K. GAITONDE, and A. J. COPPEN .......................................................... 220
Extradural cysts of the spinal canal PETER GORTVAY .......................................................... 223
The radiological appearances of spinal extradural arachnoid cysts H. M. DASTUR .......................................................... 231
Intramedullary abscess of the spinal cord MICHAEL BETTY and JOHN LORBER .......................................................... 236
Reversal of Horner's syndrome L. J. CAUST and MARJORIE M. L. PRICHARD .......................................................... 241
The use of Teflon as a dural substitute and its other neurosurgical applications PAUL TENG and CHRISTOS PAPATHEODOROU .......................................................... 244
Intracranial oligodendrogliomatosis PHILIP V. BEST .......................................................... 249
The serum protein changes in giant cell arteritis J. MICHAEL SMALL and KETTY GAVRILESCU .......................................................... 257
A retrospective controlled study of tranquillizers in long-stay patients A. A. ROBIN .......................................................... 262
Paired response of motor units during voluntary contraction in Parkinsonism A. DAS GUPTA .......................................................... 265
The influence of various stimuli upon Parkinsonian tremor and rigidity JANUSZ SUBCZYNSKI, KEIZO MATSUMOTO, TUNG HUI LIN, and IRVING S. COOPER .......................................................... 269
Precocious puberty due to a hypothalamic hamartoma in a patient surviving to late middle age LIONEL WOLMAN and G. V. BALMFORTH .......................................................... 275
Book reviews .......................................................... 281

No. 4 AUGUST 1963

A new approach to unilateral and bilateral lobotomies for psychomotor epilepsy ERIC TURNER .......................................................... 285
Seizures induced by movement: report of a case relieved by operation M. A. FALCONER, M. V. DRIVER, and E. A. SERAFETINIDES .......................................................... 300
The relationship between generalized paroxysmal E.E.G. discharges and various test situations in two epileptic patients BARBARA TIZARD and J. H. MARGERISON .......................................................... 308
Pathological plantar response: disturbances of the normal integration of flexor and extensor reflex components LENNART GRIMBY .......................................................... 314
Myopathic changes in a muscular dystrophy carrier VICTOR DUBOWITZ .......................................................... 322
The incidence of ringed fibres and sarcoplasmic masses in normal and diseased muscle JAAP BETHLEM and GEORGE K. VAN WUNGAARDEN .......................................................... 326
The localization of alkaline phosphatase activity in cerebral blood vessels R. G. BANNISTER and F. C. A. ROMANUL .......................................................... 333
The effect of metabolic acidosis and alkalosis on the blood flow through the cerebral cortex A. MURRAY HARPER and RUTH A. BELL .......................................................... 341
Trigeminal root and ganglion injections using phenol in glycerine for the relief of trigeminal neuralgia ANTONY JEFFERSON .......................................................... 345
Results of antero-lateral cordotomy for pain in cancer P. W. NATHAN .......................................................... 353
A fatal case of cerebral abscess due to Nocardia asteroides S. I. JACOBS and R. MYLES GIBSON .......................................................... 363
Epidemiology of multiple sclerosis in the counties of Northumberland and Durham DAVID C. POSKANZER, KURT SCHAPIRA, and HENRY MILLER .......................................................... 368
Studies in the development and breakdown of the use of names III Recovery from nominal dysphasia GERARD ROCHFORD and MOYRA WILLIAMS .......................................................... 377
Book reviews .......................................................... 382
Contents

No. 5 OCTOBER 1963

The effect of ischaemia on nerve conduction in the carpal tunnel syndrome PAMELA M. FULLERTON............................................ 385
The effect of stimulus intensity on motor latency in the carpal tunnel syndrome GEORGE PRESWICK ........................................ 398
Trans-synaptic retrograde degeneration in the visual system of primates J. M. VAN BUREN............................................ 402
The significance of the retinal artery pressure in cerebrovascular insufficiency J. SZAPIRO and I. ŚWIETLICZKO................................. 410
Anatomical studies of the collateral blood supply to the brain and the retina J. SZAPIRO and H. PAKULA............................................ 414
Spinal cord infarction occurring during thoraco-lumbar sympathectomy J. TREvor HUGHES and ALEX G. MACINTYRE.................. 418
Neuropathological and neurochemical aspects of generalized glycogen storage disease L. CROME, J. N. CUMINGS, and S. DUCKETT ........................................ 422
Schilder's disease (sudanophilic leucodystrophy) in five male members of one family L. CROME and M. ZAPELLA .......................... 431
Subacute encephalitis in an adult associated with necrotising myelitis and results of animal inoculation experiments A. M. G. CAMPBELL, R. M. NORMAN, and R. J. SANDRY ........................................ 439
Reflex vasomotor abnormalities in the hands of migrainous subjects O. APPENZELLER, K. DAVISON, and JOHN MARSHALL ................. 447
Is pregnancy order a factor in epilepsy? JULIUS D. METRAKOS and KATHERINE METRAKOS ........................................ 451
The estimation of mean potential duration in endocrine myopathy D. A. H. YATES ........................................ 458
On missing meningiomas AHMED EL-BANHAWY, P. W. E. SHELTON, and JOE PENNYBACKER ........................................ 462
A study of visual perseveration M. KINSBOURNE and ELIZABETH K. WARRINGTON ........................................ 468
Book reviews........................................ 476

No. 6 DECEMBER 1963

The relationship between enzyme activity and neuroglia in the prodromal and demyelinating stages of cyanide encephalopathy in the rat M. Z. M. IBRAHIM, PHILANDER B. BRISCOE, JR., OLGA B. BAYLISS, and C. W. M. ADAMS............................................ 479
The descending respiratory pathway in man P. W. NATHAN ........................................ 487
Effect of alpha methyl dopa on experimental tremor H. SCHNIEDEN ........................................ 500
A controlled clinical trial of alpha methyl dopa in Parkinsonian tremor D. O. MARSH, H. SCHNIEDEN, and JOHN MARSHALL .................. 505
Hereditary spastic ataxia simulating disseminated sclerosis MOHSEN MAHLoudJI ........................................ 511
Veterinary workers and disseminated sclerosis A. M. G. CAMPBELL ........................................ 514
Hereditary spastic paraplegia PETER F. ROE ........................................ 516
Nerve fibre size in the carpal tunnel syndrome P. K. THOMAS and P. M. FULLERTON ........................................ 520
Aberrant nerve fibres within the spinal cord J. TREvor HUGHES and BETTY BROWNELL ........................................ 528
Cerebral pathology in subarachnoid haemorrhage BARBARA SMITH ........................................ 535
A perceptual maze test sensitive to brain damage A. L. BENTON, A. ELITHORN, M. L. FOGEL, and M. KERR ........................................ 540
Studies in spina bifida. Part IV The frequency and extent of paralysis P. A. DORAN and A. N. GUTHKELCH ........................................ 545
Proceedings of the Society of British Neurological Surgeons: 68th meeting ........................................ 552
Book reviews........................................ 562
Index to volume 26........................................ 569
