Figure Three examples of the patient's writing production, arranged in chronological order from top (at the beginning of the symptom), centre (about six months after), to bottom (about one and a half years after). Black marks outline right and left page margins.