manic patient. The analysis is then more likely to run more smoothly, a better emotional attitude is gained, and dangers in the first intensity of the transference when the free floating libido is seeking satisfaction is lessened. The sensitive, over-prudish woman patient is also saved from resistances and the likelihood of negative transference being set up.

C. STANFORD READ.

EDITORIAL NOTICES.

THE EDITORIAL COMMITTEE will welcome original articles for publication in the JOURNAL. They should be addressed to Dr. S. A. Kinnier Wilson (Neurology); Dr. Bernard Hart (Psychopathology); the Editorial Secretary, Journal of Neurology and Psychopathology, Bristol; or to any other member of the Editorial Committee. The Copyright of papers appearing becomes the property of the Journal unless the authors state before publication that they reserve the rights to themselves.

They also invite correspondence, criticisms, and suggestions from readers, which may aid in the development of the JOURNAL.

Contributions should be as concise as possible, and be forwarded at least six weeks before the date of publication. Papers are best type-written, and carefully revised, since alterations in type are costly. References should be made in the following order:—year—volume—page—and be inserted in brackets in the text where they occur, thus: (BRIT. MED. JOUR. 1912, ii, 579). Where practicable, articles should conclude with a short summary of their contents.

Illustrations.—These, whether plain or coloured drawings, or photographs, should be rendered as perfectly as possible. The Publishers undertake the preparation of the blocks, but not of the originals.

Reprints.—Owing to the present abnormal costs of production, free reprints of articles cannot be given until further notice. If desired they may be obtained by payment, but notice must be given when the proof is returned.

Subscriptions.—30/- net post free; single numbers, 8/6 net.

Business Communications should be addressed JOHN WRIGHT & SONS LTD., JOURNAL OF NEUROLOGY AND PSYCHOPATHOLOGY, BRISTOL.

Sole Agents for the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, WILLIAM WOOD & CO., 51, Fifth Avenue, New York, to whom American subscriptions should be sent.
